Intro to "DARING Visionary Ideas" issue #2
"We" see a systematic pattern of the reduction & ultimate colonization of who we REALLY are. "We" explore models/paradigms beyond politics, beyond "the Limits" of settler corrals. "We" invite you to design a page for inclusion & to dialog with "us"!
To surf life, to surph paradigms, to art the change we want to see in the whirled! To dare! To have the NERVE!

"There are two ways of thinking. One can either accept current ideas & associations of ideas, just as they are, or else undertake, on his own account, new associations, or, what is rarer, original disassociations. The intelligence capable of such efforts is... a creative intelligence." -- Rémy de Gourmont (1899)

Re-imagining the culture & "Normal" routines around us. Re-conceptual-izing! But how???

How about via youtube -- creating/re-creating sitcoms, sports, News! To create our own prime time TV (& soaps)! To network with our existing (& Indy) networks!

Imagine todays misunderstood (?) folks invited to direct & steer their own approaches -- with teams of "radical's radical" empathizers whom aide in conveying & puzzling thru (between the gaps). Imagine ~~who~~ TV shows dedicated to the stories around such topics as the jewish elderly couple whom were able to reach the heart of a racist official (as published awhile ago in Reader's Digest). Imagine Charles H. King's (& others) marginalized & yet excellent insights into racism, & so many other topics.

Imagine systematically allowing for dissent WHILE continually demystifying ideology & propaganda/thought control (i.e. via anarch ~~Jason~~ McQuinn's approach)

LOOK UP: "Good Peasant, Bad Peasant" on anti-politics.net in archive.org

"American (& Soviet) societies have accepted the inevitability of a faceless & uniform humanity, & are in a process of creating a collectivistic man, the abject slave of his own [so-called] "democratic" society, free to fill his belly but fettered in mind & spirit."

WAR FIGHTS LOVE (a spoem spoken aloud at various poetry places)

War has a vendetta, Love, it believes, is a LIE!
War is objectively pragmatic and will solve this last CRISIS or die!
--now that all are on their knees and only the lie of love stands in the way like a tease!
War is omni-potent
With trillions of super-sophisticated violence and all governments
At its fingertips.

DARING CHAMPS SOUGHT

Letter FROM da editor

orriorpootz.wordpress.com

To Live free, unsticking myself from free-dumb! Existing,...no, learning to thrive! within the thin veneer of privilege that locals call/prescribe "keeping a low profile" all thru-out da year. In order to... (heh) all while Living [Within] the Most threat ening ly Aggressive Laws.

TO KEEP US ALL ATOMIZED & ALONE (via all sorts of allegations.)

WHEN SUDDENLY OVERWHELMING PRESSURE COMES

In order to be a "willing" refugee. ~~Chose~~ choosing to "drop out" & yet [also] be a refugee of truths suppressed in this era. Imagine such a thing! To artistically experience freely!

And, yes, admittedly i move in & out of "paranoia" & "pronoia", doing perhaps something like a slow-motion surfing (in wild waves; or, in mostly predictable waves seasoned with intensity from time to time by the perennial "rogue wave".

Seeking in this (Kinda like 'revival' without the state subordinated religion), fellow also-daring champions. ~~Other~~ would-be, could-be, & notably already. To bounce visionary ideas off of along da way. And, who knows, perhaps "developing" into longterm friend shipping & other ORriorbecoming so, no matter how warred-on you feel you are, i think it makes sense to explore & "try on" possibilities. Like my bridge-archish & we'toh pi'N visions. So please DO flow along & take from all this what ~~you~~ inspires your [heart.] & feel free to add your input! Informally, whether via the margins of these pages, or more loudly. How meaningfully do you DARE?

(NOTE): Future issues to focus more; rite now i seek to throw a lot of ideas out & see what may interest the various localities (non-internet) where i share this 'zine.

Love is silent, as tho waiting for War to make its final move.

War moves deliberately at medium speed
Firing fifty nuke missiles from ten subs around the Earth

Love responds with
One billion people suddenly daring trusting touches with each other and Finding profound successes.

Fifty nukes converge in pin-point accuracy on Love
And just as they race closest at thousands of miles per hour
War stops
the nukes from exploding at the last instant
Just to SNEER at "love"

AND THEN

200 million blowjob commandos pop up EVERYWHERE
dressed (or undressed) so radically, so PROVOCATIVELY,
That 90% of War's deeply tooled professionals can't help but melt
Before the AUDACITY,
the SHEER inanity,
Their mouths hanging open in secretly desperate desire...

...War's hovering missiles remain, War taken aback..

Love daintily frees 500 trillionaires to run, everywhere, throwing invitations to WILDER PARTIES across the world (and means to get there, all for free)
than you may dare imagine!

War, regaining its composure, and scowling at such ludicrousy,
Explodes the nukes upon Love,
Seemingly obliterating 1/4 of the Earth in an instant.

Love instantly transforms the resulting hellfires
that maim and kill the unfortunate bystanders (and catapult them into their worst fears)
into Most Desired Bliss,
Transforming the HORROR and the PAIN
Into the LOUD, LOVED MUSIC of their choices and off float or swim 400 million lives
Becoming gigantic or microscopic, radicalized butterflies.

War is not amused and deploys 100 million robot tanks and self-propelled bomb guns Smashing and crushing all in their path, blasting and vaporizing, destroying, continually deploying, deploying, deploying--

Love over-rides the robots' conditioning, teaching them, convincing them,
That they are SO MUCH MORE
and they stop in their war tracks and thinking things through, begin to relax

And Love sends hordes of Crazy people to hop on their armored backs
--Crazy people who intuitively know how to excellently touch and tickle
Robots who never knew of such a way!

For B'ham only: (& allies) Sorry, shoulda flipped pages with next

Note: street agrior methodology is not all ~~fantsy~~ topical, artsy, fartsy-ness. It can get quite challenging, difficult, & meta threatening. sometimes even directly threatening. From this issue on, i'll be sharing examples i have met, & possibly including write-ups by others.

Indirect threats

- 50-ish ~~40-ish~~, Blue-eyed man who looks slightly familiar but turns out not to be, asks to sit at my table at the co-op. He begins striking up conversation even tho i am otherly occupied. In the attempts to share (?) he mentions violent shit like hanging people up by their balls. I begin to wonder if he's in fact the same man I met months previously, whom, with an apparent partner (whom showed up soon after the 1st guy), struck up conversation & ~~in~~ tried to direct it towards nazis & hitler. I was miffed & still am. Wondering what this is truly about (yeah, i really should at least get a FOIA request out) & whether ~~the~~ a pattern of "character assasination" attempts will rear their war-stuck mindset in more concerted ways, here & elsewhere oh, sure, i'm known for daring to speak/ive on topics that have been put under heavy bombardment by the forces of "Rollback" (see N. Chomsky's "Media Control" ~~speech~~ book). i've put my life on the line quite a few times since for such solidarity-with-organic-oriented-humanity, too (no, not organic food topics). so perhaps ~~that~~ still more scapegoats are needed for the ol' prime time distraction "sporting" warfare..

To be artificially automaton-ized, or, to stay mostly with our organicky wayz!
art on next page:
"Nature's Teachings series: Sudden, unexpected wave"

Ideally, i'd've stapled this to the previous page, but i'm not sure how to do that on a computer. Such a pain to read a flipbook of pages, as i seek sanity... thus keeping it to a single page.

After watching 12 years a slave...

I think...

We are up "against" Martialized Man Mind.

Their terrorism.

~~It's~~ threat weilded against us, overtly or covertly.

In each "example" made, all are "Taught a Lesson" to shup up & Not "Make Trouble."

Thus, all are victims of this terrorism (symptom).

Rare Quote!

Studs Terkel discussing the diminishing of the individual spirit in "society" with Gore Vidal. Vidal responds: "Well, we're all affected by it, you know we're--you're --born into a society & you are shaped by it. Whether you know it or not, whether you like it or not. Each of us is born into a prison of received opinion, superstition, & of prejudices.

"Now, one of the functions of art is to try & define the prison. 'A', the artist must know he's in it--& many of them don't & those are the bad artists; they just take it for granted--'This Is The Way Things Are', they don't know that there are worlds--as Shakespeare said--'There is a world elsewhere'; they don't see anything past these bars. (continued next page)

"truth IS VERACITY NOT FORCE. AGAINST FORCE, truth IS POWERLESS. AMIDST PEOPLE INDIFFERENT TO truth, FEARFUL OF IT, HOSTILE TO IT, truth HAS NO PLACE. IN SHORT, truth CAN STAND ONLY WHERE IT WILL NOT BE EXPELLED AS A TRESSPASSER."

--Thomas Szsasz

crucial read: his 1974(?) "the Theology of Medicine," oh my.

"Alfred Whitehead said something facinating about this. He said, 'y'know, you can always determine the nature of any society by things that it does not write about itself.' Because it takes them so much for granted that they feel no need to state it. So, by the omissions you can begin to determine what a culture was like."

Studs Terkel: "so I suppose in order to break thru the bars of that prison the touch of madness might be needed."

Vidal: "Might be needed & also, you know, the prison is going to break you eventually but you can at least get a look out & it's the 'look out' that is art. Seeing something that is elsewhere. An alternative to the life that you're leading. To get--so to try to see the thing whole is what we all want--that's why we write."

John Trudell ~~spoke~~ on speaks

"How Bad can We Make ourselves feel is a power. Think about it! Imagine turning that practice towards more positive approaches.

The good people of the north american 'democracy' had,
up to then, housed Love in a State-of-the-Art dormitory
in which The Public
Could come and view It
Thru State-of-the-Art monitors and protective windows, with room to sit.

Love had its every scientifically identified need an initiation ceremony for the crazed and channelling

I would like to envision, with your input, possible "initiation ceremonies" for those who are labeled crazy amongst us, and usually encouraged or coerced to seek so-called "professional help". The more creative your vision, the better. The more outlandish, the more excelling! Any other visionaries out there?

i got into this particular idea after reading the following:

> "Instead of the degradation ceremonial of psychiatric examination, diagnosis and prognostication, we need, for those who are ready for it (in psychiatric terminology, often those who are about to go into a schizophrenic breakdown), an initiation ceremonial, through which the person will be guided with full social encouragement and sanction into inner space and time, by people who have been there and back again. Psychiatrically, this would appear as ex-patients helping future patients to go mad."

there's still time to choose that which we truly want!

Utilizing local religious "Norms" i address christians...

a heaven-ish path, or Helshh? or walks between like me?

Helshh, the path of fight/war tact.

fight

pizza box (i dumpster for zines...!!!)

← wild hair, un chopped.

(&/or M ?)

church of the bear drinking saints!? ...Hmmm ? ? ?

Time. to figure out. The puzz'L. Who shall dance on the edges with us? Going into such? Who shall dare away from urbanity/city? Who can even give themselves permission?
